

SERVICE LINE REPLACEMENT PROCESS

DIRECTIONAL BORING TECHNIQUE

- 1 Workers disconnect the old lead service line from the water main and the residence's plumbing.
- 2 The boring machine drills a new hole underground.
- 3 The machine pulls the new copper service line through the new hole.
- 4 Workers connect the copper service line to the water main and the residence's plumbing.

